GRAMMAR-SCHOOL PROGRAM ON WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

The followni program was rendered at the grammar school on Monday in honor of Washington's birthday, being largely phonograph records:

"America," quartette, school, last verse.

Plantation melody, school and chorus.

"Carry Me Back to Tennessee," baritone solo.

Address, Miss Walker.

"My Old Kentucky Home," school

"The Irish Imigrant," John McCormack, gift of J. V. Swift.

"Old Folks at Home," school.

Miss Walker spoke briefly of Washington's home and tomb at Mount Vernon as they appeared to her on a recent visit. The address was chiefly given to the life of Gen. Armstreng and the beginning of his work as the emancipator of the slaves from ignorance by the founding of Hampton Institute.

A history of the great school at Hampton, followed. The children were especially interested in the description of the school exhibit at Hampton last spring when the negro boys built a house, including the carpentry and masonry work, on the stage before the audience. They also shod horses, milked cows and made butter on the stage. There was also an exhibit similar to that of our local school.

As Miss Walker knew Gen. Armstrong and the members of his family she spoko with much feeling.

Enjoyable Card Party and Dance.

The whist tournament and dance given by the Fraternal Aid Association in Foresters' hall on Tuesday evening was a great success, both socially and financially. After the card games were over, about one hundred people were seated in the banquet hall and refreshments were served to them. All spent a very enjoyable evening. The winners of the prizes were: Ladies' first prize, Mrs. Geo. Stafford; gentlemen's first prize, J. P. Foley; ladies' consolation prize, Mrs. Hogan; gentlemen's consolation prize, W. Meiers.

Geo. F. Hayman, who has received his rating as second class yeoman in the navy, is enjoying a short furlough with his relatives in this city. Hayman expects to sail March 5th on the transport Thomas for the Asiatic stations.

Two Famous Califene Recipes

$1000 COOK BOOK

A Good Book For Good Cooks

Cake Icing

2 level tablespoonfuls of "CALIFENE"
1½ cups powdered sugar
2 tablespoonfuls boiling water
Cream thoroughly; add
½ teaspoonful of any flavoring desired.
For chocolate icing, use
1 tablespoonful ground chocolate.

Mayonnaise Dressing

1 egg, thoroughly beaten
1 teaspoonful salt
1 level teaspoonful of mustard
Add gradually
1 cup of "CALIFENE" slightly heated, then vinegar, or lemon juice to suit taste. Lastly, add dash of paprika or pepper.

Califene

is pure and wholesome because it is made of nothing but oleo stearine, the purest, most neutral of the beef fats and selected cotton seed oil; made under rigid Government inspection.

The ingredients are plainly shown on Califene tins; all manufacturers are not so frank concerning their products.

CALIFENE, like a good-natured girl, makes hosts of friends wherever introduced.

First you meet her in the store where her chaperon puts her through various fancy paces to show you what she can do.

In your own house she is just as willing to make the tastiest, crispest pastries you ever ate, if you'll follow the simple directions in the Califene Cook Book.

Take CALIFENE home with you, or telephone and the grocer's boy will be proud to bring her; she's the sort that makes people enjoy life.

CALIFENE cooks without butter, and that's economy.

HOME OF WM. H. HANSON LOOTED BY BURGLARS.

Four hundred dollars in money and jewelry valued at an equal amount were carried off Monday night by burglars who robbed the Arguello-street home of William H. Hanson, millionaire president of the Tacoma Mill and Lumber Company. It was the biggest haul ever made by the soft-soled gentry in Redwood City.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanson returned only recently from San Francisco, where they passed the winter. They were both at home Monday night, but none of the members of the household heard anything during the night. The servants discovered the robbery early in the morning and when Mr. and Mrs. Hanson were aroused, it was discovered their apartments had been ransacked.

Marshal James Coleman of Redwood City and Sheriff Mansfield weer notified immediately and are working on the theory that the burglars were familiar with the interior of the Hanson residence.

The loot secured by the burglars included a valuable fgold watch and chain owned by Mr. Hanson. He has offered a reward of $50 for its return and no questions asked.

PROMINENT COUNTY WOMEN FORM CIVIC ORGANIZATION

Fifty leading clubwomen and members of the late grand jury gathered in the Masonic hall at Burlingame Friday afternoon and effected the organization of a San Mateo County Center of the California Civic League. The meeting was held as the result of 100 invitations sent out recently to a list of representative women who served on the inquisitorial body. The following officers were elected by the new organization:

Mrs. Mary M. Miller of Burlingame, former grand jurywoman and school trustee of Burlingame, president; Mrs. Racine McRoskey, grand jurywoman and club woman, first vice-president; Mrs. George A. Merrill, wife of Redwood City's mayor and president of the Redwood City Woman's Club, second vice-president; Mrs. L. E. Aubury of Easton, clubwoman and wife of the former state mineralogist, secretary; Mrs. Augusta Geary, former grand jurywoman, and resident of Redwood City, treasurer.

A second meeting was held at Burlingame yesterday and other meetings will be held in the near future, to which the public will be invited.

E. W. Magruder and family are now occupying their Vera-avenue home. They have spent the last three winters at the Riverside Apartments, San Francisco, but Mr. Magruder hopes that the street work in the vicinity of his home may be completed this coming summer so that they may be able to stay in Redwood the entire year.

LOCAL BOY SCOUTS ARE OFFICIALLY RECOGNIZED.

Redwood City Council, No. 1, Boy Scouts of America, has received official recognition from the national headquarters in New York. This local movement has organized with Roy W. Cloud as president; Charles G. Landscheit, vice president; D. W. Williams, treasurer; H. H. Sears, secretary. Twenty boys have signed the muster roll and a dozen of these have qualified for certificates and badges as "tenderfoot scouts."

Local residents may secure trustworthy boy scout messengers by addressing Wilbur H. Doxsee, 7 Drew building, telephone 276. It is recommneded that the boys earn the cost of various articles of equipment, and one of the requirements for a first class scout commission is to have a bank account. Any boy over 12 years of age can secure printed matter regarding the boy scouts by applying to Principal Mantz of the grammar school.

B. C. Byrd, formerly of Byrd Bros., is now employed with Stafford Bros. Stafford Bros. will soon add a select line of fruit and vegetables to their stock.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

A STORY OF SAM SHORTRIDGE.

(From the Portland Spectator.)

After many years of faithful service in the senate of the United States, George C. Perkins has decided to retire, and California is in the throes of an election at which his successor will be chosen. This state has a good deal of interest in this political contest, as the leading and indeed, the only important Republican candidate, is a one-time Oregonian, Samuel M. Shortridge. Thirty years ago, Mr. Shortridge lived in Salem, and was the only trousersed citizen of that time and place who had the courage to assist Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway in her fight for woman suffrage. Young Shortridge posted up the bills that called attention to Mrs. Duniway's meetings. The lad exposed himself to much scorn and many jeers for aiding the weak cause; but was not turned from his work. Those of his tormentors that he could lick, he trounced, and he worked overtime at this job; the others he marked for attention at a more opportune time. But he put up every bill entrusted to him by Mrs. Duniway.

Mr. Shortridge has been a leader in the Republican party of California for many years; he is an orator of ability and marked persuasive power, and to his efforts many of the most prominent men of the Golden State owe their success in politics. Before this year he has never sought office, and such is his loyalty to his friends that if Geo. Perkins were a candidate Mr. Shortridge would be working for his re-election.

Interest is added to the contest in California by the fact that Francis Judas Heney is a candidate for senator on the Progressive ticket. After the election we shall probably have the pleasure of seeing Mr. Heney seek a nomination from the Highway Upkeep Provided For.

The Supreme Court decision of February 24, sustaining the motor vehicle act, releases money for State highway maintenance, which had been tied up during the fight on the constitutionality of the law. As the act was the only source of funds for maintenance of the State highway, the Highway Commission was entirely without money for maintaining the road already constructed. In spite of the severe demands through abnormal weather conditions of the present winter, the highway engineer's force was able to keep up the highway without material loss.

Now that maintenance funds are made available the plans submitted to the Highway Commission some time ago by Highway Engineer Fletcher providing for maintenance will be made effective. These include organization of a veritable "flying squadron" for maintenance of the 2700 miles of State highway on which work is now under way. By use of the motor truck the amount of territory covered by one maintenance outfit is greatly widened and quick repair work in case of floods will be possible. The maintenance plans as developed by Engineer Fletcher and approved by the Commission are especially adapted to the widely varing conditions of California highways.

The State has been laid out in seven divisions for maintenance purposes by the highway engineer, and in each of these divisions there will be installed a complet repair outfit costing probably about $20,000. The major portion of the expense will be for motor spraying outfits for making surface applications of bitumen. These will be heavy duty trucks carrying huge tanks for California asphaltic oil, while smaller trucks will distribute sand or screenings. It is estimated that the crews with these will make as high as fifty miles in a day.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Kirtland of Lodi have lessed the Brown cottage adjoining the Methodist church and will be here in a few days to reside permanently.

Children's Hair Brushes, Ivory and Rosewood Finish. Good value, 50 cents each. A. D. Walsh Co., Pioneer Drug Store, 12 Broadway.

County Recorder H. O. Heiner has appointed Mrs. W. V. Francis of Halfmoon Bay a deputy registerar for the board of health to register all deaths and issue death certificates in that district.

The dancing section of the Redwood City Woman's Club will meet at the club house on next Friday evening, March 6. The admission fee has been reduced from one dollar to fifty cents. All the late dances are taught by competent instructors at these meetings. A large attendance is looked forward to on that evening.

James M. Watson of Fairfield, Solano county, and secretary of the Abstractors' Association of the state, was here yesterday calling on all the local abstract men. He brings the tidings that there is going to be a big boom in California real estate this year and predicts a large volume of business for the craft.

Friday evening, April 17th, the first Friday after Easter, the grammar school will give the cantata, "The Quest of Truth." Over seventy pupils in costumes of the Middle Ages will take part. Mr. Carrington is now painting the scenery. The proceeds will be used to purchase records for the music department of the school.

MEMBERS OF PIONEER FAMILIES MARRIED.

On Saturday last Miss Margaret Kreiss and Henry Werder were united in marriage in this city by Rev. Father Sullivan. Charles Curran and Miss Irene Kreiss, a sister of the bride, stood up with the couple. The affair was quietly celebrated, only the imediate relatives being present. After the ceremony the party enjoyed a pleasant time at the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous banquet had been prepared, and later the happy pair left for a short wedding tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Werder are both popular in the younger set and are also members of pioneer families. The couple expect to go next month to Gerlish, Nevada, where Mr. Werder has taken up a half section of government land, and will build up a home. The congratulations and well wishes of their many friends will attend them.

The White Slave Traffic.

There will be both afternoon and evening performances at the Bell theater this Saturday, when, under the direction of the management of the Portola Thaeter of San Francisco, the noted five-reel special production, "The Inside of the White Slave Traffic," will be presented. These are the original and authentic pictures dealing with this great crusade against vice, brought direct to this coast from the Park Theater of New York. For these performances the price of admission will be 25 cents and minors under the age of 16 will not be admitted under any circumstances. These pictures have met with popular approval wherever shown and are said to be well worth the price of admission.

Assessor Ready for Work.

Assessor C. D. Hayward's labors start Monday when he will begin assessing the property of the county. He will place a competent corps of deputies in the field to do the work which will be completed by next July. Those desiring information about their assessments should call on Mr. Hayward at his office in the courthouse. Mr. Hayward uses excellent judgment in making his assessments and very rarely does any property holder question his judgment. When the supervisors meet as a board of equalization in July to equalize assessments, rarely is there a property owner present to protest against the assessor's levy. This speaks volumes for Mr. Hayward's efficiency and fairness.

Coburn Case Before Jury.

The jury which is to pass judgment on Loren Coburn's competency was completed in Judge Cabaniss' court in San Francisco on Wednesday. Taking of testimony began Thursday. It will take probably three weeks to try the case. M. J. Hynes, the guardian of the aged capitalist, is represented by Ross & Ross of this city and Cullinin and Hickey and Matt Sullivan of San Francisco. Coburn is represented by John L. McNab, Archer Trent and R. P. Henshall.

Christian Science Services.

To accommodate citizens of this city who may be late in registering for the town election, County Clerk Jos. H. Nash has kindly offered to keep his office open for registeration from 7 to 9 o'clock during the evenings from March 9th to 13th, inclusive. Registration for the town election closes March 13th. The old register has been canceled and every voter must be registered before thirty days previous to the election.

ASSESSOR'S INSTRUCTIONS

To Owners of Real Estate and Personal Property.

The law requires each and every person who owns any class of property to annually, during the months of March, April or May, file a statement with the Assessor or his deputy in the county where his property is located. You should give a statement of all property owned by you on the first Monday in March at 12 o'clock m.

No change can be made by the Assessor after he turns over his books to the Board of Supervisors on the first Monday in July. The Board then sits as a Board of Equalization during the month of July.

Remember, if you fail to give in your assessment you fail to comply with the law and may cause yourself, the Assessor and Tax Collector much trouble, and very likely cause yourself expense.

It is much more satisfactory to the Assessor, as well as to yourself, to have your assessment correct when you go to pay your taxes.

An informal reception was tendered the Rev. Fathers Grant and Casey of Burlingame at the home of Mrs. C. McCarthy on State street on Monday evening. It being the celebration of Washington's birthday, the house was very prettily decorated in the national colors. The evening was spent in music and other amusements.

As the result of a careful census made under the direction of the city council, it has been definitely determined that the actual population of Burlingame at this time is 2829. At the taking of the regular census in 1910, the population of the city was given as 1565, but since that time much new territory has been included within the city limits.

It is now assured that there will be two tickets in the field at the comnig Burlingame municipal election. At a meeting of citizens recently held a complete second ticket was named, the nominations being as follows: For trustees, John P. Cleese, John M. Vickerson and John H. Bell; for clerk, P. H. Sontag; for treasurer, John V. Doherty.

THE TRIAL FOR LIFE.

Sunday Lecture at Foresters' Hall by E. O. Hammond, of Oakland.

Those who have been fortunate enough to hear the last two lectures of the Laymen's Series now in progress in Redwood City, say that they have heard more reasonable, harmonious and consistent application of Scripture than in years before. The subject of this third lecture promises even more interest, and we understand Mr. Hammond is one of the most pleasing of the speakers.

These people have been accused of proposing a "second chance" for the fellow that doesn't make good in this life. When we think nearly half of the human family have died in infancy, we wonder when that half ever gets its chance. The creeds have told us that the race was tried in Adam, its federal head, and that being the case, these same creeds offer a second chance to those who want it now, but not to the rest of us. We wonder if Mr. Hammond can give us an interpretation of this matter that is in harmony with God's justice,. His love, and His power, and at the same time prove his position from the Bible.

We have discovered that these gentlemen know what they are talking about, and since they are such liberal advertisers, provide their own auditorium, offer their literature free, and ask no donation and take no collection, nor suggest the need of money, we would bespeak for them a most liberal patronage.—Contributed.

Automobile owners who have applied at Sacramento for state licenses and can show some sort of receipt may secure a card from Justice of the Peace Lampkin or Traffic Officer James Logan that will give immunity from arrest until such time as they may receive their licenses. The law goes into effect on March 3d and those not having licenses or who connot show receipts will be arrested.

Local Gamblers Caught.

Marshal Jas. P. Coleman at 11 o'clock Monday night raided the residence at 607 Cedar street, occupied by Jack Barnett, a junk dealer, and captured six men, including Barnett, who were playing "seven-and-a-half." Deputy Sheriffs Shields and Parker and Night Watchman Collins accompanied Coleman in the raid. Barnett and Silva, promoters of the game, were held in jail for lack of $100 bail, while the others were allowed liberty on depositing $25 each.

The men were yesterday brought before City Recorder Hannon. Barnett and Silva pleaded not guilty, and were held for trial on bail of $100 and $20 respectively. The other defendants pleaded guilty and after paying a fine of $10 were dismissed, with the exception of Anderson, who was unable to secure the money and he was remanded to care of the sheriff. The trial of Barnett and Silva was set for 10 o'clock next Wednesday morning.

Third Annual Poultry Show.

At the recent meeting of the executive board of the San Mateo County Poultry Association the directors set the date for the third annual poultry show of San Mateo county for November 12th to 15th inclusive. The selection of judges has not been made, but will be announced very shortly. It is expected that the local businessmen will give hearty support and come to the front with such assistance as will warrant a successful exhibition. Further particulars can be had from the secretary, Arthur R. Schroeder, San Gregorio.

H. C. Tuchsen, the real estate dealer, announces himself as a candidate for the office of city trustee.

GEORGE C. ROSS BUILDS MOUNTAIN BUNGALOW.

George C. Ross, the well known attorney of this city and San Mateo, has just had a pretty little bungalow erected on a wooded knoll overlooking the Corte Madera creek, some eight miles northeast of San Gregorio. He expects to pass many of his week ends there with members of his family. The land on which the artistic bungalow is situated was purchased by Mr. Ross from Mrs. Kate Ralston, widow of James Ralston who owned a large tract of land on the westerly slope of the coast range above San Gregorio. The Corte Madera creek which has its source at the top of the mountain west of the J. A. Folger place, runs through the property and its wooded banks make an ideal setting for a rural home. To reach his bungalow Mr. Ross can take one of several routes. Roads lead to it from Woodside, San Gregorio and King's mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Briant Perkins of Salt Lake City are here on a visit to Mrs. Kate Ralston.

Born—In Palo Alto, February 23, 1914, to the wife of Albert Schofield (nee Lovie), a son.

SEVERE BRONCHIAL COUGH

Doctors Feared Lung Trouble, Restored to Health by Vinol.

The medical profession does not believe that lung troubles are inherited, but a person may inherit a weakness or tendency to them.

Mrs. Kate Heckman, Springfield, Ohio, says: "A few years ago I was in a very bad run-down condition, and the physician told me I had consumption. I tried another physician, and he told me I had ulcers on my right lung. I quit the physicians and started on 'Vinol.' Today I am perfectly healthy, and that is why I recommend 'Vinol'."

Vinol soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces and allays the cough, Vinol creates an appetite, strengthens the digestive organs and gives the patient strength to throw off incipient pulmonary diseases.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you

P. S.—For any skin trouble try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.
